CANVAS

Paintings in Bamboo Silk. Rich color pigments; arranged on top of one another layer by layer on a canvas best describes this collection. Over the course of time the colors are eroded, scraped off, and wiped away. Time appears to be the artist behind these works, specific designs within the collection have been hand carved to impart special high-low textural effects.

PARADISE

The seemingly random, fervidly anarchic nature of Paradise Collection is what makes it so appealing. For these carpets the weavers used recycled Saree Silk and created the patterns intuitively. This vitality is skillfully showcased and it is reproducible with lots of color variations.
